

101. PICCADILLY CIRCUS, LONDON, ENGLAND

PICCADILLY CIRCUS, LONDON, ENG-LAND—Is a busy center of traffic at the intersection of Regent street, whence the wide Shaftesbury avenue leads to the northeast. The triangle in the center of the circus is occupied by a memorial fountain to Lord Shaftesbury, which was unveiled in 1893, and adorned with eight plaques of scenes from the philanthropist's life.

Dear Sister
I for got to tell the prize of the butter it is 28¢ From Your Sister

75
Post Card

FOR ADDRESS ONLY

Mrs Samuel Bean Harrisburg.
344 Camp. Pac.,
St.,